SEPTEMBER 14, 2023 (THURSDAY)

Partners left Újszilvás and travelled home.

RESULTS

- The participants received an overview of the European strategies, policies and programs aimed at overcoming the economic and social difficulties caused by the COVID-19 epidemic.
- The project partners presented their own practices in order to improve the situation of the youth workforce, which enabled a mutual exchange of experiences.
- The participants also personally viewed the labour management practices of enterprises operating in the host Újszilvás Municipality, which can be considered as best practices in their own planning as well.
- Based on the best practices of the partners, a compilation was made in Infographic format, which is one of the common dissemination products of the project.

CONCLUSIONS

The participants will become aware of the goals and solution efforts that the EU is making to manage the post-COVID-19 situation, and in this, the positioning of the young workforce will receive special attention.

The knowledge material of the project meeting is integrated into the final products of the project.
